

Unit 5: Making a journey

In Unit 5, you read a dialogue in which a father gives advice to his daughter, Daisy, about getting a flight alone. Now read Daisy's story of what happened when she got to the airport. Complete her story using the words below.

control plane security display board underground
check-in counter ticket gate boarding pass terminal driver luggage duty-free journey Departures

Daisy phones her dad to let him know that she's arrived safely...

Hi Dad – it's Daisy! Yeah, I got here OK, don't worry. The _____ was a bit stressful, though. The bus _____ took me to the wrong _____ so I had to get another bus. Then it took me ages to find the SpeedAir _____. When I finally found it, I showed the lady my passport and _____ and checked in my _____. She gave me my _____ and I went straight off to _____, like you told me. I went through passport _____ with no problem but I forgot to drink my bottle of water so _____ took it off me. That was a bit embarrassing. Anyway, I found my flight on the _____ and went off to do some _____ shopping. But I totally forgot the time. I was having a coffee when I heard them call my name. I left my coffee and ran to the departure _____! Anyway, once I got on the _____, everything was fine. Yeah, I'm here with Auntie Wendy now. We're going to take the _____ into the city centre. Did she like the perfume? Oh no! I totally forgot!