

Online promotional materials - social media post

CP2_post1

It's not what you say, it's how you say it. Don't want to sound like a robot? Learn about stress patterns here: {link}

Download

CP2_post2

What does this word actually mean? Say it five different ways. Does your intonation change? Click here to find out why: {link}

Download

CP2_post3

In messages, we often write like we speak. Can you figure out these sentences? Say them out loud. See more examples here: {link}

Download

Online promotional materials - social media post

CP2_post4

Take a look at the words below. Do they look scary? A group of consonants next to each other (consonant clusters) can look difficult to pronounce but they're really not! With Clear Pronunciation 2, you'll learn the difference between consonant letters and consonant sounds, and how to say these words clearly and confidently. Why not try to tackle these words now by clicking here: link

Download

Online promotional materials - social media post

CP2_post5

What is clear pronunciation? Let's break it down into two parts. First, the 43 sounds of English – learning the basics. Second, putting those sounds together in clear and natural speech. Clear Pronunciation 2 teaches you to speak clearly and intelligibly in just five steps. Try the program for free here: {link}

Download

CP2_post6

Speaking is like music. Your voice goes up and down – it sounds different when you're happy and when you're sad. This is called intonation. Intonation gives extra meaning to the words you are saying. Learn how to recognise and use intonation with Clear Pronunciation 2 here: {link}

Download