

Answers

1. For example: 'Log in to the school website and click on the link on the academic skills page.' Or, 'Click on the image on the desktop.' Obviously, it is important to be able to direct students clearly and accurately.
2. Go to the Starting Out panel. The first time you go into a unit, you will automatically go to Starting Out. From the Practice Zone, click left (on computer) or swipe right (on mobile).
3. The Resource Bank / Center is a repository of study sheets, video and audio transcripts and learning records. To access it from the Practice Zone, click right (on computer) or swipe left (on mobile).
4. On computer: it is on the top bar, more or less in the middle.
On mobile: it is in the bottom left corner.
5. If there is feedback, the Marking / Scoring button will change to a Feedback button. If there is no feedback, it will disappear.
6. You can, provided your institution is licensed to use Study Skills Success and the copies are for your students and are not charged for.
7. The Akan drum in the British Museum
8.
 - i. Dealing with unknown words: guessing and ignoring words
 - ii. Developing your academic vocabulary: GSL, AWL, dictionaries
 - iii. Learning specialist words: specialist words in lectures, keeping records
9. Go to Reading / Skimming: Using headings 2, and read the answer to Qn 2. A rat can have up to 122 babies in a single year.
10. Go to the Study Skills Success page on ClarityEnglish.com. Explore the syllabus and all the other supporting materials for teachers.
11. This is a useful prompt for teachers to discuss the practical integration of Study Skills Success into the wider curriculum. To read an account of a successful integration of Study Skills Success, go to blog.clarityenglish.com and search for 'Shung Tak College'.